MAVWA

MAVWA is a membership organization open to all. Its mission is to promote fiber from all fiber bearing animals—especially those in Colorado, New Mexico, and Texas—and to pass on the rich history of the fiber-related crafts to the next group of fiber enthusiasts.

MAVWA produces the Taos Wool Festival - celebrating its 36th year, as well as other activities that promote fiber production and fiber products in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas.

Help support the Taos Wool Festival and MAVWA by becoming a member:

MAVWA offers two types of memberships:

- Individual/Family/Business $35.00
- Organization/Association $60.00

More information and a downloadable form are available on our website:

Introductions to a wide variety of fiber arts and techniques
In the Demo Tent - Throughout both days of the festival

Saturday October 5th

11:15-11:45

Spinning Anything with Nothing

Glenna Dean, Art Through The Loom

Spinning yarn is nothing more than creating and deliberately distributing twist in your fiber. Paying close attention while practicing this simple principle will make your fiber respect YOU!

12:00-12:30

Dimensional and Textured Felt

Deb Tewell-The Felting Source

Easier Than It Looks Flat felting can be easily manipulated to produce dimensions, layers, and textures that can be added to anything from hats to wall hangings.

12:45-1:15

Weaving a rug with Alpaca rug yarn- Instant gratification weaving!

Rhonda Amen, The Fleece Factory of the Rockies

Using specially designed and handmade peg looms, we will create a rug from our Alpaca core rug yarn giving you tips and hints for a quickly made treasure for your home.

1:30-2:00

Sculpting with Wool

Judy Chapman

Learn the history of needle felting and see how the needles transform wool into colorful sculptures!

2:15-2:45

Tints, Toners and Shades

Peggy Doney, The 100th Sheep

How can I use white when it's not a dye? Toners? What are those? Won't black just make my color disappear? Come find out more about these lesser used colors.

3:00-3:30

Navajo Weaving

Sarah Naataanii, Golden Navajo Churro Sheep Corral

Famous Navajo Weaver Sarah Naataanii, will demonstrate the traditional Navajo Loom. Listen to sacred stories of how Navajo deities Spider man and Spider Woman brought the gift of weaving to the people.

Sunday October 6th

11:30-12:00

The Art Of Triangular Weaving

Miranda Dietrich, Phoenix Fiber Mill

See how a weaver expresses herself with the art of triangular weaving. Miranda will discuss the natural fiber she uses and demonstrate the simplicity of this unique weaving style.

12:15-12:45

Do You Believe in Magic?

Laura L Ninnemann, Lone Raven Studio (TM)

If you have never used the Magic Loop method of circular knitting, join me and try it yourself. You will never use double-pointed needles again.

1:00-1:30

Traditional Navajo Hand Spinning Using a Lap Spindle

TahNibaa Naataanii,

Golden Navajo Churro Sheep Corral

This demonstration will focus on the cultural significance of the Navajo spindle and share carding and spinning Navajo churro wool from the rolags, spinning directly from uncarded fleece.

1:45-2:15

You've Got to Be Warped to Weave

TDLT Weavers

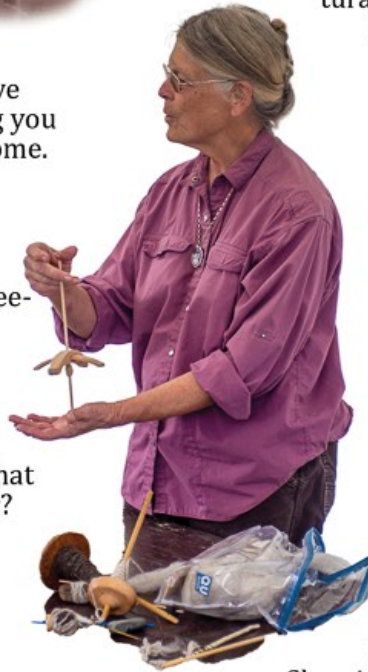

Try your hands at weaving, you'll be amazed at what you can create - our looms will be warped and ready for you to use.

2:30-3:00

Plucking a Rabbit

2019 T-Shirt Artist

Cory Philips from Lafayette, CO is our
2019 T-Shirt Artist!
As the winning artist
Cory received a $200
award and a T-shirt featuring her artwork.
Cory has been attending
the Taos Wool Festival
for many years, partly as a fiber enthusiast, but mostly because her parents raise sheep at Sheepfeathers Farm and her Mom sells her beautiful fleeces at the festival. In fact, one of her her mom's fleeces won grand champion a few years ago!

Cory has dabbled in various fibers endeavors including felting, natural dyeing, spinning, weaving, and knitting - "Like all my fellow fibers-addicts, I have a ridiculous stash of materials and equipment to prove it!".

If she is not wandering the festival with her drop spindle, she is usually helping out at the co-op
booth her mom is a part of, the Rocky Mountain Natural Colored Sheep Breeders Association.

Coralie Silvey Jones

Born October 10, 1942 in Los Angeles, California and died December 4, 2018 in Port Angeles, Washington.

I met Coralie when I became a new MAVWA member and vendor in 1989. I soon learned she was a force to behold and as I also found out, a most generous person. Her knowledge of fiber—the history and tradition, the practical and the technical, made her my choice as a mentor.

I had the pleasure of working with Coralie on the MAVWA board and Earth's Palette Natural Dye Conference until she retired from MAVWA duties.

Thank you Coralie, I appreciate all you gave to me and to the Mountain and Valley Wool Association for so many years.

May you be at ease with the Angels.

-Ruth Baldwin

Coralie Silvey Jones was the heart of MAVWA and the Wool Festival at Taos. Because of her dedication, organization skills, and love of fiber, these entities in a large part are what they are today. During the eight years that I served on the board as Treasurer, Coralie was a constant consultant, coach, and as we lovingly called her, "our mother hen". She was open to new ideas but also had the knowledge of the history of the organization which helped to move MAVWA and the Festival forward. She was also a very gracious and kind lady which made knowing her a joy. She will be missed as a friend and colleague.

-Teri Inman

Coralie and I participated in the Wool Festival together for many years, over more than 10 years ago now. The first thing I remember doing with Coralie was traveling to a MAVWA Board Meeting in Colorado in her wheelchair accessible van.

I suspect Coralie knew about all phases of fiber production; dyeing, knitting, felting, weaving and more. Before I met her she was doing rug repairing.

I remember when she and her husband, Alan, ran a business in Taos called Sage Papers, where one could get stationary, single sheets of specialty paper, rubber stamps, inks, pens, greeting cards, notebooks and so much more. There she helped me design one of my first business cards.

We shared Wool Festival booths, where she sold books and knitting needles and felted hats, while simultaneously she was overseeing and troubleshooting the festival as it was going on. All the while she was calm and organized and gentle. Work and pleasure in doing what she loved was a joy to be around.

I even learned how to make paper at a workshop she conducted.

Each year Coralie meted out more jobs for me to do, all the while showing me more ways that the Wool Festival was put together, both on site and behind the scenes. We set up and broke down several booths and festivals together.

Then she moved to Washington state and now she has passed on. And I miss her and will always remember her generous presence.

-Beverly Pollack-Silver

Come weave on the EarthLoom!

The Earth Loom is a living symbol of our intention to weave together the fabric of community. Earth Looms help communities to unite hands and hearts to build and weave together an emblem and an instrument of peace. With many hands on both sides of the loom, we use our differences to create art in which every contribution is vital to the design as a whole.

Created by Susan Barrett Merrill, EarthLooms have spread across the world, from the US and Canada to the UK, Australia, Portugal, Bermuda and India. Merrill will be traveling from Maine to bring EarthLoom weaving, on both days of the Festival. All are welcome to weave to create art as a gift for Community Against Violence: servicing survivors and those escaping domestic and sexual abuse.

Weaving together is so powerful – it is a literal act of weaving together the community. Weaving together in this simple and ancient art creates a deep-rooted bond in the heart that can change the way we define our neighborhood.

Hands and Hearts is an all volunteer group of fiber artists creating knitted and crocheted items which are gifted to over 15 programs, birthing centers and hospitals in Albuquerque, Espanola and Taos, NM. We gifted over 1500 garments last year to preemies, newborns, hospitalized children (some battling cancer), veteran program clinics, men and women without homes and the elderly in our community. We were inspired by the people from many states who attended the Taos Wool Festival and stopped by our table and felt inspired to start programs like ours. We are grateful to be a part of this year's festival.
